Chicago Police Hunting Maniac; After Outbreak

Girl Is Kidnaped And Attacked After Hold-Up Slaying

GIRL'S COMPANION
THROWN FROM CAR

Cold Blooded Crimes Have Aroused Chicago Police
—Arrest Imminent

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Capture of a young maniac, who kidnaped and criminally attacked
a 19-year-old girl a short time
after he had murdered a man in a holdup, was believed imminent early today.

Heavy police reinforcements were rushed to the city's southwest side
where the young bandit fled on foot
after attacking Miss Lillian Henry,
a niece of Deputy Police Commissioner John H. Alcock.

A half hour before he abducted
the girl the youth had shot and killed Frank Jordan, 38-year-old salesman, during a holdup.

Six blocks from the scene of the murder of Jordan, the young bandit attacked Miss Henry as she was chatting in an automobile, parked in front of her home, with James Guis-singer, 23. Pointing his revolver at Young Guisinger, he forced him to drive to a lonely spot where the bandit threw Guisinger out of the automobile.

Girl Makes Escape
He held the girl captive for six hours, blindfolding and attacking his victim. He fled on foot. The girl tore off the bandage on her eyes
and drove to her home where police were notified.

The murder of Jordan occurred as he was sitting in a parked car with a young woman friend, Miss Emma Danke, 25, Miss Danke told authorities that the robber ordered Jordan
to step out of the car and then sent
the fatal bullet through the sales-
man's forehead as he was opening
the automobile door.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Does music help workers? Apparently it does. Many employers have radioed in their offices. The radio emits all sorts of programs but it is noticeable that dance music is generally found to be the favorite music in many offices.

People who wish to escape the penalty on delinquent taxes should pay city and school taxes before December 1, providing such is pos-

there will be a resumption of the penalty on delinquent taxes, as follows: school five per cent, city six per cent.

Snow, which has been predicted
for this locality by the weather man
for the past two days, has failed to make itself very evident. When the weather turned cold last evening, it looked as if we were in for a nasty bit of weather.

Although the month is just a little better than half over, the precipitation already is greater than it was for November a year ago, and farmers' wells and springs should be filling up nicely. The total precipitation
so far for November is a little more than three inches, while last year
it was only 2.58 inches for the whole month.

Last year at this time, we were enjoying a mild spell, the thermometer standing at 71 and 72 degrees on November 17 and 18.

Recently completed road improvements have given a new route from
New Castle to Grove City, that is

James B. Dickson Killed In Accident In Northern Rhodesia

ON WORLD TOUR
WITH ARTHUR LOEW

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)
CULVER CITY, Cal., Nov. 17.—
James B. Dickson, internationally famous aviator, was killed in the crash of the Arthur Loew airplane
in Northern Rhodesia, according to a cablegram received here today by Hal Roach, movie producer, from Loew.

Loew, who is the son of Marcus Loew, film magnate, was not injured in the crash, according to the cablegram. Joe Roth, New York attorney, also expressed unhurt. The accident occurred as the plane was taking off.

Dickson, who has a wide reputation in aviation circles, is survived by the widow, who is an expectant
mother, and a small son, Tommy.
Mrs. Dickson was in a state of collapse at her home in Los Angeles.

Charred Body Of Man Is Found In Washington, Pa.

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Pa., Nov. 17.—
With the number on his watch their only clue, authorities here today
sought to identify the badly charred body of a man found on a culm
pile at the Lincoln Gas Coal company.

The man had been dead several days, it was believed he had erected
an improvised shelter at the side of the culm pile and had crawled inside where he was overcome with fumes. The burning culm gradually ate to the shelter and cremated
the body.

Boy Prodigies Ill With Grip

(International News Service)
EVANSTON, Ill., Nov. 17.—Even as you and I, embryo geniuses are subject to the ills of ordinary mankind. Northwestern University's four boy prodigies—George Alcott, James Norton, John Platt and William Stech—were in the school infirm today, suffering from grippe.

The boys, ranging from 13 to 15 in age, roomed together in a dormitory
and this accounted for the fact that all were infected, doctors explained.
The lads were admitted to the university as a special experiment to observe the effects of higher learning on precocious youngsters.

Debt Appeals To Be Refused By Uncle Sam

Polite But Firm "No" To

FUTILE TO ASK FOR CONGRESS ACTION

Temper Of Congress Is Against Any Action To Delay Payments

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—A polite but firm "no" is to be Washington's answer to the British, French and Belgian notes asking to be relieved of paying the Dec. 15 installments
on their debts, amounting to approximately $125,000,000.

Twenty-four hours of renewed
contact with congressional opinion
has apparently convinced President Hoover that it is futile to ask congress to postpone the payments.
Without regard to party or faction,
every one on Capitol Hill seems positively and, in some cases, explosively against it.

Expect Nations to Pay
No replies will be sent, however,
until after Mr. Hoover has conferred here next Tuesday with President-elect Roosevelt. Mr. Roosevelt has already privately indicated that he considers the question of postponement one to be dealt with by the existing administration.

Under these circumstances there is little left for the Hoover administration to do but to politely inform the European debtors that they are

Woman Confesses Brutal Slaying Of Her Husband

band At Shamo-

IMPPLICATES HER
CRIPPLED SON

Husband Slain By Hammer
Blows While He Is Asleep In Bed

(International News Service)
SHAMOKIN, Pa., Nov. 17.—Mrs.
Mary Stank, 50, confessed today to the brutal murder of her husband, Jacob Stank, 70, to whom she had been married seven months, and implicated her crippled son, Clement Kiesel, 27, in the hammer slaying,
state police announced.

The woman was taken before a justice of the peace where she pleaded guilty to a charge of murder.

No Motive Established.
Kiesel, who told the bizarre story
of crawling on hands and knees to his parents' bedroom, after breaking
from a room in which an intruder
imprisoned him, and of finding his stepfather dead and his mother bound with rope, denied his mother's accusations implicating him.

No motive for the ruthless killing
was immediately established.

Mrs. Stank cracked under a 12 hour grilling directed by District Attorney Robert M. Fortney, troopers declared.

They said she admitted crushing
her husband's skull with a hammer, wielding the implement twice as he slept beside her Monday night.

Accuses Her Son.
She charged, police added, that Kiesel then struck several blows with a hatchet.

The hammer believed used in the slaying was found in an out-building near the Stank house, but the hatchet had not been recovered this morning.

Mrs. Stank had previously told authorities her husband was killed by two men who burst into their room
in search of money. Her half-paralyzed son corroborated this story.

Hoover To Meet With Roosevelt On Next Tuesday

President-Elect Roosevelt
Telephones White House
For Appointment
Tuesday

WILL CONFER ON WAR DEBT ISSUES

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt and President Hoover will hold their conference at the White House
Tuesday afternoon.

This date was arranged shortly after noon when Mr. Roosevelt telephoned the White House from Albany.

He told Mr. Hoover he will pass through Washington Tuesday enroute to his home at Warm Springs,
Ga., and would come to the White House.

Mr. Roosevelt said he would arrive here at 3:30 p. m.

The meeting of the nation's two leading men was initiated by Mr.
Hoover. He invited the President-elect to confer with him on the national and international problems
that confront the chief executive.

Mr. Roosevelt accepted and expressed the wish that their meeting
be "personal and informal".

TREASURY DEPARTMENT CONSIDERING FIGURES FOR LOCAL STRUCTURE

Building Will Probably Be Erected Of Sandstone With Granite Trim —
Lowest Bid Is Considerably Under Fund Appropriated For Work — Believe Contract Award Will Be Announced Within Few Days.

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent New Castle News
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 17.—A. W. Kutsche &
Company of Detroit, apparently will receive the contract for building New Castle's new post office. They have submitted the lowest bids received by the Treasury Department, offering to put the structure up with limestone
for $198,000, with sandstone for $209,500, and deducting $50 from either contract price in the event iron and steel instead of aluminum is used in the building. Action on the bid will probably be announced in a few days.

When the Treasury opened the bids late Wednesday, offers had been submitted by 20 firms. These varied from the lowest bids submitted by the Kutsche Company; to figures of $271,000 on limestone and $286,000 on sandstone offered by the Dick Construction Company of Pittsburgh.

L. A. Haug, the only New Castle bidder, offered estimates of $249,835 on limestone and $236,320 on sandstone, with $10,445 deductible in the event iron and steel were substituted for aluminum. The R. B. McDanel Company of New Brighton, now erecting the Ellwood City post office, submitted estimates of $219,402 and $231,402 with $5,295 deductible.

Probably Of Sandstone
The post office will probably be constructed of sandstone with granite trim.

A. W. Kutsche & Co., of Detroit, low bidders, offer to put up the building of limestone for $198,000
and with sandstone for $209,500. As $293,400 of the appropriation for New Castle remains after the purchase of the site, it is likely that the $209,500 sandstone bid will easily fall within the limit of cost and that sandstone will be specified. It was said unofficially at the Treasury Department today.

At noon today the Treasury had not yet received any of the five construction bids which had been mailed out but not received when bids were opened yesterday. If the Post Office Department testifies that these five bids were mailed in sufficient time to insure delivery yesterday but delayed in the mail they will be accepted by the Treasury
when they do reach Washington and may lower the Kutsche figure.

Elevator Bid
Low bidder for the job of installing the two freight elevators in the post office is the Houghton Elevator and Machine Company of this city with a bid of $8,600.

Here follows a list of the bids opened by the Treasury on Wednesday, with the bid on limestone first,
the bid on granite construction sec-

Believe Dispute Over Money Cause Of Murder-Suicide

Officials Reach Definite Conclusion In Murder Case
Near Myersdale

(International News Service)
MYERSDALE, Pa., Nov. 17.—Inability to pay $15 in wages and not a quarrel over a woman today was advanced by police as a new theory
of the motive for the murder and suicide on the Woodland farm of John C. Erdlen, aged farmer-recluse.

Erdlen killed John Geip, his 30-
year-old farmhand, and cut his body to pieces, scattering parts of it in several places around the farm,
before slashing his own throat with
a razor, police said.

Tedious investigation into the past
life of both men led to the new theory that a quarrel arising when Erdlen failed to pay Geip his wages
probably was the cause of the tragedy.

When the game is in and the

they see the opposing team falter

won and his men are good and he's proud of the manner they've shown their stuff, but woe is him when the game is lost and the other fellows

BATTLE TO SUCCEED GARNER IS FORECAST

Many Aspirants For Speakership

Rainey Injects Complications By Announcement He Is Candidate

SELECTION COMES AFTER MARCH 4

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Keen rivalry for the post of speaker of the house came into the open today following the frank statement of Rep. Henry T. Rainey (D) of Illinois that he will be a candidate.

At least six willing members were being urged for the toga which Speaker John N. Garner will drop when he walks to the other end of the Capitol to become vice-president and presiding officer of the senate. Although a speaker will not be elected until the newly elected house organizes after March 4, the candidates are expected to carry on their battle all during the coming short session.

Many Candidates.
Those listed as candidates are: Rainey, Reps. Joseph W. Byrnes of Tennessee, John McDuffie of Alabama, William B. Bankhead of Alabama, John J. O'Connor of New York and John T. Rankin of Mississippi.

Rainey, vigorous despite his 72 years, distinguished in appearance and plain-spoken, is rounding out 28 years of service in the house. He is now floor leader.

Byrnes, chairman of the appropriations committee, is serving his 24th year. He has liberal backing, and is reported to have visited John F. Curry, Tammany leader in New York, to discuss the speakership.

McDuffie, serving his seventh term, is whip of the house. Bankhead, in his 16th year in the house, is ranking Democrat on the rules committee.

Many friends of Speaker Garner are urging McDuffie, who was endorsed by the Alabama legislature, Bankhead, an expert parliamentarian, is personally popular with most of the members.

Rep. John J. O'Connor of New York, in his tenth year, emerged as a house leader in the last session. He has been a consistent advocate of prohibition repeal. He occupies a strategic post on the rules committee.

Rankin is the "peoples' candidate" for the post. He is serving his sixth term. He sprang into prominence as chairman of the world war veterans committee, a strong advocate of cash payment of the bonus and inflation of the currency.

Just think! A week from today will be Thanksgiving. It won't be long now Mr. Turkey Gobbler.

Play at the municipal golf course has not ceased according to reports made by W. G. Fleming, manager to Councilman Louis Genkinger, director of municipal grounds. Golf play will continue until such would injure the turf. Play then will be ordered stopped.

Chief of Police John F. Haven said today he had assigned several policemen to work at the Municipal Toolhouse today to aid the streets department attaches in registering prospective employees on East Washington street.

The police department now has three automobiles for use in case of trouble. The Buick, Chevrolet and Ford cars are in good shape, it is reported. The Ford, equipped with bullet proof windshield and machine gun is kept in readiness for any serious trouble that may arise.

A portion of the scaffolding on the Woods Block, North Mill and East Washington streets has been removed. Recently the chief of police, J. F. Haven, reported that as soon as sufficient progress had been made the barricade would be removed by the builders.

City stenographers today were at work on drafts of the agreement between the city and the Victor Olsen Contracting company and it is believed they will be in readiness for signing by Victor Olsen, head of the firm and Mayor Mayne late today or Friday.

Although it rained hard yesterday it did not keep hunters from going into the field. Some of them reported having been fortunate enough to "kick out" some rabbits and bagging them.

ond, and the amount deductible through substitution of iron and steel for aluminum:

S. M. Siesel Co., Pittsburgh, $226,000; deductible, $7,200.

R. B. McDanel Co., New Brighton, $219,402; deductible, $5,295.

The Kutsche Company, which has apparently offered the lowest bids, revised both of its original estimates downward by telegraph. After mailing its figures to the Treasury, the company telegraphed the Treasury to reduce the estimates by several thousand dollars.

Imposing Building.
Imposing and handsome because of its modern simplification of the classic style typical of buildings in the nation's capital city, Washington, the new federal structure here will add a magnificent link to the chain of government postoffices now in the process of erection.

The two-story building, to be built of native sandstone or limestone, will stand in the southwest quarter of the New Castle public square, its main entrance facing Washington street. An entrance will also face South Jefferson street.

Huge pillars, beautiful and majestic, will stand along the Washington street side of the building, running from the granite base along the street to the roof of the edifice.

The main lobby will be of marble and aluminum, with terrazzo floors. While the postoffice itself will occupy the first and a part of the second floors, space will be provided for other governmental departments now quartered at scattered points about the city. The civil service commission, recruiting quarters for the army and navy and the labor department offices will establish new headquarters there. It is probable that room will also be had for the department of agriculture.

Down on the main floor will be the official quarters of the city's postmaster, his assistant and corps of supervising aides, with workrooms in the rear for mail dispatching and routine service. The section of the second floor to be devoted to the postoffice will provide additional working space.

Floor areas have been carefully estimated and arrangement of spaces mapped by experts to afford the utmost of efficiency in the functions of offices involved. Nowhere will the postoffice outlay be matched for scientific arrangement.

The building has been laid out in such a way as to avoid interference with the Clark residence which will contain the only one of the present buildings to be retained on the property.

Above the Washington street entrance will be placed the great seal of the United States.

Architects here, the W. G. Eckles company, are cooperating with Washington architects in hurrying the final details for an early commencement in construction. The Kutsche company, submitting the low bid, is also erecting Youngstown's new postoffice.

Amy Johnson Is Forced To Land

(International News Service)

LONDON, Nov. 17.—Amy Johnson, attempting to beat the England to Cape Town flight record of her husband, Capt. J. A. Mollison, made a forced landing at Bonguella today and may be forced to abandon the remainder of her flight.

In a cable to her husband, she said:

"I was forced to land at Bonguella owing to oil feed trouble and I doubt if it can be rectified here. I am terribly disappointed."

Mollison, who read Miss Johnson cable to International News Service, said:

"It looks as if the delay will cost her the record."

"Continual conspiracy," retorted Wilson. "And we'll prove it."

"Have you any fresh stuff?" queried Congressman Heartsill Ragon, (D), of Arkansas, chairman of the committee.

HUNDREDS MORE GET WRIGLEY DOLLARS

Wrigley Reporters Are Still Spreading Joy To Gum Users In New Castle

BY MISS MINT

I went to a Birthday Party yesterday, and had a lot of fun, too. You should have seen the big piece of cake they gave me, and they sent one to Mr. Spear also. The party was held at the Cathedral in honor of the Order of The Rainbow for Girls. These girls were surprised to see me but they were most all prepared to give me their opinion of Wrigley's gum. I paid out a lot of new dollar bills as packages of Spearmint, Doublemint, Juicy Fruit and PK's were produced. Here are the names of some of the people I met at the party, and who received one of the new Wrigley dollars: MRS. LILLIAN TEMPLETON, 141 Boyles Ave.; EVELYN SWANSON, 2307 Albert St.; MISS MARTHA K. BIGLEY, 214 Miller Ave.; VIOLA DUFFORD, 201 N. Crawford Ave.; VIRGINIA RODGERS R. D. No. 2; DORIS MARVIN, 122 Garfield Ave.; PEARL MCCLURE, 538 Harbor St.; MRS. EDITH PEARCE, 211 Sumner Ave.; ISABELLE SHAW, 407 W. Cherry St.; GERTRUDE FALLS, 313 E. Wallace Ave.; GEORGIA PARKER, 225 McKee Ave.; MARGARET BRADEN, 315 N. Mercer St.; EVELYN HEROLD, 318 Norwood Ave.; DOROTHY KLECKNER, 112 Vine St.; CHARLOTTE ELLEN SEH, 315 N. Mercer St.; MRS. CLIFFORD M. PROBST, 318 W. Beaver St. and MRS. H. D. HORNOR, 113 East St., who handed her new dollar to the Treasurer of the Assembly.

When I stopped MR. NEIL STURDY, 712 N. Mercer St., he had his arms full of coats which he had just removed from his Dry Cleaning truck; and when he realized that at last he was going to get one of these new Wrigley dollars he nearly dropped the coats in his eagerness to get out that package of gum to show me.

When I paid MRS. W. E. BARKER, 106 W. Madison Ave., Mahoningtown, a dollar bill she said, "I think Wrigley's Spearmint in the new cellophane wrapper is great, and I'm never without it."

JOHN SANTANGELO, 1017 Clearview Ave., a student at the Senior High School, is certainly a Wrigley booster. He showed Mr. Spear a package of Spearmint, and an opinion it must have taken a full day to write. John was particularly impressed with the cellophane wrapper and the easy way that it opened.

SAM FILIGENZI, 20 Maitland St., is a dollar richer because he had a package of Doublemint with him. When I asked Sam what he was going to do with the dollar he said he was going to take it home to his mother.

"Doublemint is my favorite because of its delicious, lasting flavor," said MISS ROSALIE STENCER, 1027 Maryland Ave., when she received one of the crisp new dollar bills.

MARGARET COYNE, W. Washington St., said she used Spearmint because of its valued aid to digestion; and now Miss Coyne is a dollar richer.

MR. W. S. RICE, 506 Croton Ave., said he has always used Wrigley's Doublemint because it left such a nice fresh taste in his mouth, especially after smoking. MISS SYLVIA LIGHTNER, Stanton Ave., said the Spearmint flavor was her favorite. JOSEPH M. EHRLICH, 333 Laurel Blvd., is also a Spearmint fan because of its lasting flavor.

A little bad weather like we had yesterday isn't going to stop Mr. Spear or myself from looking for Wrigley gum users, so don't fail to write. We can hand you one of these new dollars—Adv.

DEBT APPEALS TO BE REFUSED BY UNCLE SAM

expected to meet their obligations on Dec. 15 and then pass the whole controversial issue on to the new administration.

Whether President Hoover, in his forthcoming annual message to congress, will repeat his recommendation to re-create the war debt funding commission in problematical. Congress ignored such a recommendation a year ago, and since that time sentiment against any tinkering with the debt agreements has crystallized more solidly than ever.

What Mr. Hoover will propose to congress on the debts, if anything, depends largely upon the outcome of his conference with his successor.

His advisers indicated today that the out-going president is going to be guided largely by the wishes, if any, of the incoming president.

Members of the senate and house take the position that if the debtors are unable to pay, then they should take advantage of the "escape clause" contained in all the agreements—that is, serve 90 days notice of their inability to meet a payment and thus receive an automatic extension of two years on principal payments.

Otherwise, the overwhelming sentiment among returning senators and representatives is: "Let them pay or default."

CROSSING THE COUNTRY IN TWELVE HOURS

COLONEL ROSCOE TURNER has broken the record for a transcontinental trip in this country. He has made the flight from New York to Los Angeles in a monoplane in 12 hours and 33 minutes. The previous record by Frank Hawks was 14 hours and 50 minutes. All this goes to show how the time for cross-country journeys is being gradually whittled down. These are speed races, and it is not to be presumed that they can be duplicated by the average tourist; but Colonel Turner is confident that the day will come when the every-day traveller will think nothing of having breakfast in New York and dinner in Los Angeles.

We might as well reconcile ourselves to the fact that we are living in a new era and adjust ourselves to new conditions. It has not been so many years ago that it required a week to travel from coast to coast. But things are different now, and the mile-a-minute trains upon as matter-of-fact means of transportation.

Not all of the people are air conscious yet; but year by year the facilities will improve and the costs will be lessened. In the meantime a twelve-hour trip from one end of the country to the other is a rather thrilling achievement.

"OUTS" WIN EVERYWHERE

Elections since 1929 have resulted almost unanimously in favor of the outs, no matter where these elections were held. The Labor government lost out in Great Britain because of the depression. In Germany, Herr Brüning was defeated because he could not bring back prosperity over night, while in France the conservatives were turned out of office because France could not finally escape the world-wide economic catastrophe. In many instances governments were overturned by force and violence. This happened in Spain and in several of the Latin-American countries, and in each instance the change of government, whether violent or otherwise, was caused by the hard times and the depression.

The only governments of importance which have not changed are those of Soviet Russia and of Italy. In these two nations the reins of authority are held in dictatorship and there is, especially in Russia, no adequate expression of the popular will through suffrage. Now the United States has no dictatorship and wants neither dictatorship nor revolution. As a result the people waited to express their discontent at the polls, and naturally the result was the turning out of the party in power. The best evidence that the American government is a thoroughly democratic one is that this change was made without violence. The losers accepted the result with good sportsmanship just as the result is always accepted by the losing party in the United States. The winners have assumed the responsibility in a sober and serious way, realizing the serious obstacles to be overcome. The losers have generously offered to co-operate with the victors in any constructive measures designed to help the economic situation in America. This is as it should be and reflects the true American spirit.

HARKEN, YE SHOPPERS!

Shopping is one of the oldest of human activities—as old as the Garden of Eden, where the serpent proved himself an expert salesman and the first woman as keen a bargain hunter as the last. Man is not a shopper by nature, but only so by grim necessity, stern duty and frequent cajoling. Even then he labors under many handicaps, the most serious being the obsession that he is a poor fish and out of water to boot.

"Ordeal by Fire" is one thing; ordeal by shopping is another, but scarcely a different thing. Too bad there are no medals for shoppers who have braved a bargain day with nursing a pet peeve or wearing a worried look. Also that there are no decorations for folks who can hold their own in a rush at the holiday season without holding back several hopeless but infuriated fellow-shoppers at the same time. Tell us how you shop and we will tell you what you are.

There is a fine art of shopping as everybody ought to know, and three simple rules are fundamental—first, know what you want and list your items before you leave home, otherwise your expedition may be farcical and a failure. Second, know where to go for what you want, which means a careful reading of the advertisements in the daily papers. Third, go after what you want as early in the shopping season as possible and thereby lighten the burden of pushing, pulling, elbowing, nerve-racking crowds. If there be a fourth rule it is this—let courtesy constrain your actions and speech the while you bargain, since civility helps to make shopping as well as love "one long sweet song."

PERVERTED AIM IN LIFE

The columns of the daily newspaper reveal a host of personalities, characters and just folks, all a part of humanity, but each as different from the others as either from earth.

It would be a platitude to philosophize here on the axiom, "No two persons look alike," but to observe that "No two persons hope, and aspire as one" might provide a new perspective from which humanity may view itself.

All healthy beings entertain ambitions and aspirations in varying degrees. The cynic tells us that the vast majority of modern men and women aspire to worldly wealth with no thought of mental perfection, public service and philanthropy. And then there are men and women who think only of others and of serving mankind. The art world is peopled with men and women who live for art and art alone.

This human yearning for the regard of others and the distinction of superiority or individuality reveals itself differently with different people. There is the man or woman who has braved scandal and perhaps social ostracism for publicity and notoriety. There is a class which aspires for nothing more of fame than recognition in the community, others are content with state-wide prominence, a few aspire to national repute and a select few gain world renown. Many have won fame without seeking it, but more have sought fame in vain.

It is to be feared that most morals do not give assent to the Hubbardian epigram, "The reward of a good deed is the doing," and just in that lies the distinction between the genius and the ordinary men.

Utopia is a place where no one feels inclined to amass enough of it to become a philanthropist.

WHAT DO YOU CARE?
You frown, you growl, you burst into flame. You shout: "What do I care?" and fling yourself away. But you do care. Don't fool yourself—you do!

You care about friendship. You want friends, you want to be liked, you want to like people. You know how lonely you would be if you found yourself all alone in the world, with nobody caring, nobody knowing you were alive.

You care about love. You don't want an empty life. You want someone to live for, want someone dependent on you as you would be with that person, a part of all your existence. That much you know.

You care about success. You want to accomplish something, to achieve. You want to do some one thing—even though it be a little thing—perfectly. Why shouldn't you want success? It's a decent thing, if it does not require brutality and cruelty. You are right in wanting success.

You want peace. Want an interval of quiet in the heart of the storm. You struggle and strain and joy in the battle, but you want a secret place where you can be at rest. You want peace at the center of you, because if peace is not there all the rest is vain and a dissipation.

You want health. Good health is a joy. A body in fine equilibrium is a rich possession—and though pain and suffering have challenged many a man to great endeavor, health after all is best.

You say you do not care, but you do. You care about hundreds of things. You care about appetite and hunger and blazing sunsets and crackling fires and moonlit nights and your own home town and your pride and your better impulses and crisp apples and laughing women and brave men and puppy dogs and birds and green lawns and good music and fine acting and truthful books and jokes and thundering surf and speed and lightness of heart and danger and security and much besides.

You care about yourself and you care about other people and you care about life. Don't say that you "don't care." Everybody knows you do!

A CRITICAL STAGE

Have you and your life partner reached a condition where either of you are likely as not to start a quarrel?

As time goes on it seems to require less and less to provoke an argument which soon becomes heated.

It is easy for you to become sarcastic and your partner is getting to be just as free with cutting remarks. You would not say that matters are reaching a critical stage but such a condition often results from actions and words such as you both use at times.

You can remember when your home-coming meant a good time, happy time.

You had something interesting to tell and your wife told you some of the interesting and amusing things she had seen and heard.

You can think back to the time when you reached home with a smile and were met in like manner and settled down for a comfortable evening.

But somehow of late years there seems little of that sort of thing. In the first place when you reach home you have a chip on your shoulder.

You may have had business annoyances and you are ready for an argument with anyone.

Very likely your home partner is in the same frame of mind and it takes very little to set off a fiery discussion that spoils what might be precious hours.

If you are wise you will do what you can to change this condition.

AFTER THE FROST

The cold black frost came stalking in

And with his ruthless blade
Where most exquisite charm had been

A sorry sight he made.
The salvia, scarlet to the chin,
Stands broken and dismayed.

Now idle does it seem to talk,
Since death has claimed its own.
A dahlia by the garden walk
To pink perfection grown

Falls plunk on a blackened stalk—
Proud beauty overthrown.

The golden mantle of the oak
In tattered fragments lies
About its feet. A single stroke
And the last brave zinnia dies.

While mists of grief like forest smoke
Seem everywhere to rise.

But yesterday the ground was fair
With all the joys of fall.
Beauty abounded everywhere.
Now dead and drear is all.

Jack Frost, the garden murderer,
Stopped by to pay a call.

Biggest Lame Duck Session May Say Historic Farewell

States Are Approving Norris Amendment, And January Sessions Are Expected To Complete Task Of Changing Present Awkward System

The public looks with satisfaction on the fact that the largest "lame duck" contingent in a session of congress is likely to have the historic privilege of voicing its farewell to all future time. The Norris amendment has been ratified by nearly 20 states, and with the approach of January sessions of the legislatures, it is expected that the job will be completed, and an awkward system will pass into the discard.

"The amendment will be effective," says the YOUNGSTOWN VINDICATOR, "when it is proclaimed that 'As the 'lame duck' members sit three-fourths of the states have ratified, and congress thereafter will not spend as much time in Washington as its predecessors. The congress elected now will not assemble until January 1, 1934, if the amendment is carried, instead of in December next year, and there will be no more short sessions. The election of a congress 13 months before convening has been a question before the country for some years, and at last it bids fair to be settled by providing for sessions to begin two months after election."

Pointing to some of the disadvantages of a "lame duck" session, the UNIONTOWN HERALD states that "some short sessions have failed even to pass all the appropriation bills, with the intention thereby of forcing a special session of the new congress," and that "lame duck members are frequently given Federal appointments—one method by which a president may put through measures which he favors but which would probably not be passed in the new congress." As to this year's session, the BOISE IDAHO STATESMAN declares that "many vital issues are involved" and adds: "The ridiculous part about all this is that a large number of the men in the senate and the house of representatives who will vote on the measures—measures affecting every citizen in the United States—will be men who have been defeated for re-election, or who have not sought re-election. It is gratifying to contemplate the fact that the 'lame duck' session of congress will soon be a thing of the past."

"The country has been waiting a long time for this amendment," states the BUFFALO EVENING NEWS. "The resolution for it had been passed six times by the senate and twice by the house—but always with irreconcilable differences—before it took form in the way that it now is under consideration by the states. The eagerness which legislatures have shown in approving it indicates that early next year it will have the necessary 36 votes to incorporate it in the constitution as the 20th amendment."

"The new congress," according to the HARTFORD TIMES, "will hold but one session in the course of 1934 and will vote but one set of appropriation bills instead of the customary two federal budgets. While this transition will seem a somewhat lean period for the new congress, the change will be largely to the good in bringing the legislative activity of senators and representatives more promptly in line with the verdict of the voters at the polls."

"The long interval between election, inauguration and the opening of the new congress" remarks the SCRANTON TIMES, "was necessary in the beginning because of meager means of communication and transportation. That necessity has long since passed away. Despite the abuses which have developed in practically every 'lame duck' session of congress—that is the session in which defeated members are permitted to continue to function—it was no easy matter to secure adoption of the Norris amendment. Public opinion strongly supported the amendment. Certain legislative leaders—like the late Speaker Longworth—were able to hold up its adoption by congress. From the promptness with which the legislatures which have met in the interval since the adoption of the amendment have proceeded to ratify it, it is safe to say that the proposal will not have serious opposition to ratification when the legislatures meet in January."

"As the 'lame duck' members sit beginning next month, they will witness one state after another voting to eliminate their kind from the federal government," says the BALTIMORE TIMES-UNION, while the BALTIMORE SUN advises that "the first business to be transacted by the coming legislative sessions in the state, the delay they assemble, should be ratification of the amendment." The ROANOKE WORLD-NEWS comments: "One other reform is needed. The nominating conventions of the two major parties should be moved from June to September. The month of October gives an ample time for the country to be kept in an uproar by campaign methods. It is now generally admitted that the issues of the campaign this year were settled early in October, and that all the cost and confusion of the latter weeks of the campaign were meaningless, so far as influence on the result was concerned." There seems no sense in taking a year to bring about an election and inauguration.

Some of the delay chopped off by the 'lame duck' amendment at one end, as much or more could be eliminated by postponing the dates of the nominating conventions at the other."

"It will be interesting," in the opinion of the LOWELL EVENING LEADER, "to see whether the proposal for lengthening the presidential term to six or eight years and limiting the office to a single term will ever be brought forward seriously. There is reason to suppose that it would enable the nation's executive to free himself from at least the bulk of the political considerations in shaping his policy for the national welfare. Certainly political expediency would be eliminated to a great extent. It would at least relieve a president of the necessity of interrupting onerous duties of office to enter into a campaign for re-election and the country from the confusion and uncertainty which inevitably come in the case of a presidential election every four years."

Will be found in being as big as our capabilities.

Is never to be found by reducing other people's joy.

Is often missed because we are deceived by counterfeit happiness.

Is found by making it, not by looking for it.

Comes when we have a certain absent-mindedness about ourselves.

Has never come to any man who has tried to defy the universe.

A New Yorker living in a $400 a month apartment discovered the depression and went to his rental agent with a long face and a statement that he must move because he could not afford to pay any more than $300 a month. The rental agent sighed, but admitted that times were bad and the tenant had been good, and invited him to stay where he was at $300 per month.

A month passed and the tenant returned with tales of new lows in stocks and salaries, and a statement that he could afford nothing more expensive than a $200-a-month apartment. The rental agent looked at his list of vacancies and again reduced the rent accordingly.

Roosevelt To Consider Recognition Of Russia

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—One of the first acts of Franklin D. Roosevelt as president will be to order a study of the commercial and political effects of recognizing Russia, it was learned today.

Already friendly to the idea of Russia's recognition, President-elect Roosevelt will investigate the question to determine its effects on American institutions and the expansion of America's foreign commerce. If the inquiry reveals potential benefits to the American people, Mr. Roosevelt will order American recognition of the Union of Soviet Republics.

"Mr. Roosevelt, as soon as he enters the White House, will investigate the probable effects of Russian recognition," said a Democratic leader, whose sources of information cannot be challenged. "It will be a thorough investigation into all phases—political and commercial. It will be an impartial study and when conclusions are reached, Mr. Roosevelt will do what is right."

"Does that mean he will recognize Russia, if recognition would bring some benefits to the American people?"

"Yes, if he thinks it the right thing to do."

Another Democrat, regarded as being in Mr. Roosevelt's confidence, said the president-elect was "leaning" toward Russian recognition if such a course would open new markets for American products—without endangering home markets for domestic producers. He said a "clear majority" of Democratic senators favored recognition of Russia.

No raw tobaccos in Luckies—that's why they're so mild

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.

Former Local Boy Gets Rare Bird

Turns It Over To The San Antonio, Texas, Zoo After Capture

According to a letter received here recently from Mrs. Della Gurgio, a former resident of Shaw street, this city, who is now residing with her children in San Antonio, Texas, her son Charles Gurgio made an important capture a few days ago.

He captured a Bittern at Woodlawn Lake near San Antonio. It is not a common bird in that section at least, being of the Heron species.

After retaining it for two weeks, during which time he had a hard time keeping it fed up, as he found it necessary to catch fish for it every day, he turned it over to the San Antonio, Texas, Zoo, located in Brackenridge Park in that city. The Zoo authorities were much pleased to secure this excellent specimen.

DESTROYED BY WIND

The old parking sheds, for many years the rendezvous from cold and ice for both autos and horses, in the rear of the Presbyterian church lot are no more. Now no evidence of the accident can be seen for after strenuous hours of work the remnants of the age-old buildings have disappeared.

PAIN DEADENED CHEST COLDS LOOSENED WITHOUT DRUGS

Get quick relief from neuralgia pain, sciatica pain, neuritis, rheumatic pain, lame back, stiff neck, headache, strains and chest colds by rubbing plenty of Baume Bengue (pronounced Ben-Gay) on the spot. It doesn't blister or stain. Rub it in till it sinks down and soothes the pain or breaks up the chest cold. Take no drugs, for any drug that is powerful enough to "loosen" the chest or loosen a chest cold may not be good for you.

But beware of imitations. Ask your druggist for Baume Bengue by name called "Ben-Gay" in English. There are many analgesic lotions, mostly cheap imitations of Baume Bengue made out of synthetic drugs. That is why they are ineffective. That is also why they are ineffective. Insist on Ben-Gay and you will get real results.

To Oppose Proposal To Reduce State Aid For Schools Of City

Meeting with the board of school directors Wednesday night, Dr. C. C.
Green, superintendent of schools,
presented a report of the educational congress which was held in Harrisburg on November 9 and 10, which he attended. In his report he stated that three main divisions of the educational revision were considered, the three being: (a) A new principle of financing public education
in Pennsylvania, (b) Proposed revision of the school code, and (c) A program of constructive economy for the administration of education in Pennsylvania.

Dr. Green stated that there appears to be a strong sentiment in favor of the suspension of increments during the next biennium and that a reduction in salary schedules
is being considered. The one question upon which he dwelt at length
was the proposed policy for distributing state subsidies for public schools.

Plan Suggested.

The plan in substance follows:
That in counties of the 4th, 5th,
6th, 7th and 8th classes, the county commissioners by written mandate
every three years, prior to the period
for making the triennial assessments,
shall instruct the assessors as to the rate (expressed in percentage of actual value) at which all property in the county is to be assessed, which rate shall be published in a majority of the newspapers published in the county.

That in counties of the 4th, 5th,
6th, 7th and 8th classes, the school boards be given power, in cooperation with the city council and city
assessors in cities, to act as a board
to revise and equalize assessments within the school district. That when sitting as such a board, a two-thirds vote of all the school directors present or of school directors and members of city council in the case of cities, shall be sufficient to compel the assessor to raise or lower any assessments on individual properties
to the degree necessary in the opinion of the board to bring about an equalization of assessments within the school district. From the assessments thus determined the owner of the property may appeal to the board of revision and equalization
if in his judgment the assessment
is unfair, and from the final decision of the board may appeal to the county court.

That when sitting as a board of revision and equalization or to hear appeals, the school directors and members of city council shall be paid
a per diem of $3 for this work.

That the recorder of deeds be required to certify to the school board
and to the county commissioners in counties of the class from 4 to 8, and to the board of assessment and revision in counties of the third class,
the selling price together with a description of the property and the names and addresses of the buyer
and seller for all properties that change hands. That the county commissioners in counties of classes

4 to 8, and the board of assessment
and revision in third class counties,
be required by law to keep a file of this information for inspection by representatives of the department of internal affairs of the state government.

That the county commissioners be denied the right to change individual assessments after they have been finally determined upon by the board of revision and equalization or by the county court, but that they shall be instructed as a basis for county taxes to raise or lower all the assessments in any district if in their judgment, based on sales and any other available information which may be used to determine actual value, the average of assessments in such district does not conform to the rate promulgated by the mandate
from the county commissioners. It shall be the duty of the county commissioners, upon request from five or more real estate owners in any school district, to hear evidence on inequality of average rates of assessments in different districts and to act upon such evidence as in their judgment will make average assessments equal the rate promulgated.

That the department of internal affairs shall be charged with the duty of studying all available sales
data in each county of the state, in addition to securing such additional data as will be an authentic determination of the average rate of assessment on taxable property in each school district, compare it with the assessment on all properties for which data on actual value are available, and thus derive an estimate of the average rate of assessment in each school district in the state and certify this average rate to the department of public instruction.

That when any local district has levied six mills on the actual full value of property in the district the state shall pay as a subsidy for schools an amount which, added to the taxes produced by six mills on full value of property, shall produce $1000 for every standard teacher load in the district, and in addition thereto the state shall pay to every school district in the state $300 for every standard teacher load in the district.

Would Mean Reduction.

Insofar as second class school districts are concerned, and New Castle
is a second class school district, it would mean a reduction in the amount of state aid for schools. The present allocation is 35 per cent of the salary paid which means $350 for each teacher getting $1000 per year.

This feature was discussed by the board and the feeling of the board was that New Castle should get in touch with other districts of similar size and see what could be done in the way of opposing such a proposal.
The secretary was authorized to communicate with other third class
cities with the idea of calling a meeting in the matter.

either at this time.

ROOSEVELT TO RUSH LEGISLATION FOR BEER

Special Session Of Congress Seen

Call To Be Issued If No Action Is Taken At Short Session

WANTS PARTY CREDIT FOR RESTORING BEER

By RAYMOND I. BORST
International News Service Staff
Correspondent
ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 17.—If the Volstead law is not modified at the forthcoming short session of congress, Franklin D. Roosevelt, president-elect, will call the national lawmakers into special session shortly after his inauguration next March and recommend enactment of beer legislation, it was indicated today by his close associates.

The president-elect, it was learned from the same source, has abandoned hope that a modification measure will be enacted at the lame duck session. He is not worrying about it, however, his advisors say, because he would prefer to have the Democratic party get the credit for "restoring beer."

Hints have been thrown out that Mr. Roosevelt will recommend a federal tax of $8 a barrel on beer. He is known to have been advised by Speaker John N. Garner, vice president-elect, that such a tax would net the federal government upwards of $350,000,000 annually, which would be used to help balance the budget.

No Hope For Wine.

Privately, Governor Roosevelt is said to have expressed hope that when the Volstead law is modified four per cent beer can be provided. Until the 18th amendment is re-

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine. For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a immediate. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

pealed, however, it is said he does not feel there is much chance of legalizing wines because of their high alcoholic content.

Completely recovered from the mild attack of influenza, Governor Roosevelt today planned to leave his bedroom for the first time in a week. He is working on his Thanksgiving day proclamation and also on the state budget.

Unless there is a last minute shift in his plans, Governor Roosevelt will leave New York for Warm Springs, Va., next Tuesday morning, stopping off in Washington that afternoon for his conference with President Hoover on international debts.

Truckers Hear State Speakers

Meeting Is Held In City Hall By 150 Or More Wednesday Night

Approximately 150 truck owners, truckers and friends of the motor truck industry met in City Hall Wednesday night when state officers of the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association spoke on the progress of the organization and the work being done to counteract the anti-truck drive now being staged by railroad employees.

William A. Sutherland, state secretary of the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association urged the men to get into the organization and induce as many friends of the motor truck as possible to do so in order that the anti-truck legislation be defeated.

Harold S. Shultz, director of the Highway Users Conference, of Philadelphia, denied that the railroads paid any large amount of taxes in comparison to highway users. He said that the highway users were paying for the highways and that they were entitled to fair treatment if those highways were to be used for the transportation of freight.

Assemblyman-Elect W. J. Eroe, Jr., spoke and said that properties had been taxed in the past to pay for highways and that if the truck organization could aid in cutting that property tax that they would make a large number of friends.

The meeting was in charge of W. D. Rubright, chairman of the local chapter of the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association. A number of questions were asked from the floor.

State Civil Service Law Being Scanned By City Authorities

As an aftermath of the controversy over the temporary appointment of a policeman here there has been a general thumbing of law book pages. It is probable that Article XLIV, Section 4401, of an Act that relates to cities of the Third class in Pennsylvania, will be scanned closely by city officials and interested persons.

Section 4401, Article XLIV reads: "Examinations required of all appointees. No person or persons may be appointed to any position whatever in the police department, or in the engineering or electrical department, or in the position of police inspector, or to any salaried position whatever in the fire department (except volunteer department), or health officers, other than registered physicians, or as sanitary policeman or inspectors of the health department without having first passed all the examinations hereinafter provided form and having been appointed in the manner and according to the terms and provisions and conditions of this article."

Section 4402 provides for the appointment of examining boards. Section 4403 provides the term of the board, filling of vacancies and quorum. Section 4404 provides that the civil service board shall prepare and adopt rules and regulations to cover the selection and appointment of all persons as hereinafter provided to be hereafter employed or appointed. Section 4405 provides for the grading of discharged soldiers or sailors. Under this section they are to be marked or graded 15 percent perfect before the quality or contents shall be considered. Section 4406 provides for the selection of an appointee from the certified list of applicants. The eligible names are to be kept in the order of their respective percentages and a certified list shall be furnished city council.

The section, 4407, provides for preference in appointment to soldiers and sailors; Temporary Appointments and says:

"The provisions of this article shall apply to all employees of said cities as described in Section 1 of this article. All appointments made subject to the provisions of this article shall be for and during good behavior and no employee shall be removed or transferred for any political reasons whatever. Among those persons possessing qualifications and eligibility for appointment, preference in appointment shall be given to honorably discharged soldiers and sailors who served in the army or navy of the United States during time of war: Provided, that preference be given by the appointing power, to all honorably discharged soldiers, sailors, and marines, who served in the Army or Navy of the United States during times of war, who have passed the required civil service examinations, notwithstanding the fact that the names of such soldiers, sailors and marines may not be among the four names standing highest upon the eligible lists as hereinafter provided. Such appointments of soldiers, sailors, and marines may be made without regard to any age limitations now provided for by the law or the rules and regulations of any board or commission having in charge civil service regulations in any county, city or borough.

All persons holding appointments in said several departments or as building inspectors of said cities, at the time this act goes into effect, shall retain their positions without being required to pass examination, and be removed only in accordance with the provisions of this article.

In case of riot or emergency appointments to positions in the civil service may be made without complying with the provisions of this article.

Recently the mayor requested the solicitor to furnish him with an opinion as to emergency appointments to the police force. The solicitor called the mayor's attention to the preceding paragraph of the Civil Service act which makes it possible to make an appointment in case of riot or emergency.

Solicitor White told the mayor that his predecessor, the late James A. Gardner had interpreted an "emergency" to mean, among other things, "where a police officer was off duty, either because of sickness, injury, vacation or for some other cause."

The solicitor said he has never questioned that opinion for the reason that no court has ever interpreted the language of the statute and added that "until some court does interpret it Mr. Gardner's opinion would be entitled to much respect as that of any other lawyer."

Mr. White, however, said in his letter to the mayor and council that "My own thought has always been that when this case would come up for interpretation, if it ever does, the court would say that an 'emergency' exists sufficient to justify ignoring the civil service only as long as it is impossible or impracticable to comply with the act."

Religion Helps Convict Beauty Atone For Sins

Lost 42 Jobs Because Her Past Came Up To Haunt Her

(International News Service)
DENVER, Nov. 17.—Mattie Howard, who according to a Kansas City police circular, "would not hesitate to commit murder at any time," has gone straight.

Years ago Mattie studied music in a Denver academy and won a beauty contest here. Later she served seven years in the Missouri state penitentiary for her part in the murder of "Diamond Joe" Marino, Kansas City underworld character.

Branded with the mark of the "ex-con" Mattie held 42 jobs in a few years. Always her past rose up to drive her from her position. A little more than a year ago she returned to her former home in Denver, determined to "go straight" under an assumed name. One night she went to church. There she recognized the preacher as Denny McNally, alias Joe Kenny, notorious narcotic robber of the middle west, who has reformed.

McNally and Mattie discussed the difficulties of the ex-convict in getting along in an unfriendly world.

"Why don't you try God—He helped me," McNally suggested.

Hettenbaugh Run Bridge Completed

Cockroaches Sought As Red Ant Killers

(International News Service)
MARSEILLES, Nov. 17.—A plague of red ants has descended upon this ancient port and the only efficient enemy so far discovered to combat the epidemic is the reprehensible cockroach.

The ants by thousands have invaded cupboards, kitchens and even beds while the occupants sleep.

One observant householder saw that cockroaches attacked and destroyed the red ants. He went to his neighbors and was readily granted permission to take away all of the cockroaches he could capture.

Now the whole town is on a feverish hunt for cockroaches.

Motorists Glad As 'Demon Cop' Is Transferred

(International News Service)
QUINCY, Mass., Nov. 17.—Finis has been written to the proclivities of James H. "Two-Gun" Baker, motorcycle officer, who has stopped thousands of motorists for traffic violations and earned for him from coast to coast the cognomen of "demon of the highways."

During his ten years as motorcycle officer, Baker has stopped approximately 33,000 machines, many belonging to leading citizens. Seventeen times he has been injured when thrown from his machine while chasing traffic violators.

But it was "too much publicity," according to Police Chief Ernest H. Bishop, that resulted in the shifting of Baker to the motor patrol squad.

Denver Freshmen Getting Smarter

(International News Service)

year smarter freshmen are enrolling at Denver university.

This, at least, is the conclusion of members of the English faculty.

At the beginning of the fall term an examination in spelling, grammar, usage and composition is given members of the beginning class. Those who receive grades above a certain standard are exempt from the freshman composition course.

Last year seven out of 93 who took the examination won exemption. This year 16 out of 74 earned high enough grades to escape the course.

Pretty Cool on This Gridiron

You may be an ardent football fan, but it is doubtful if you have ever seen a game played under such conditions as these. This photo was made during the game between Buffalo and Hobart, at Buffalo, N. Y., Harer of Hobart is shown with ball as he is brought down on the line of scrimmage. Owing to a three-inch layer of snow on the gridiron, the ball did not bounce once during the entire game and the players had a tough time sliding and ploughing about the field. Buffalo won a 6-0 victory over their traditional rivals.

French Red Tape On Police Record Annoys Tourists

(International News Service)
PARIS, Nov. 17.—Foreigners must now prove to French authorities they have no police record if they want to remain in France indefinitely.

The new regulation has proved a source of embarrassment to both American visitors and authorities. Applicants for a card of identity are asked to show their police certificate.

The Consulate has pointed out to the Foreign Office that police certificates are unobtainable in the United States since police control is not exercised over citizens.

Missouri Recalls First Mail Cargo From West Coast

(International News Service)
SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Nov. 17.—The seventy-fourth anniversary of the arrival of the first direct mail shipment from the Pacific coast was celebrated here.

In commemorating the event, local patriots recall that the great obstacle which so long delayed the inauguration of this service to Springfield, was not the difficulty of crossing the western mountains with a horse-drawn stage coach, but rather was the difficulty of getting such a contraption across the Ozarks which are a dominant portion of the scenery in Southwest Missouri and northwest Arkansas.

Coach Bridenbaugh Drills New Castle "Hurricane" For Game With Turtle Creek

Final Game On Year's Program May Be Tough One For Locals

In rain and mud Coach Philip H. Bridenbaugh drives the New Castle High School "Red Hurricane" football team through hard workouts this week getting ready for the big "Home-Coming Day" battle Thanksgiving with the fast Turtle Creek High football team. It will be the final game on the strenuous 1932 program for the New Castle team.

With Captain Mike DeCarbo on the bench due to age limit Coach Bridenbaugh is wrestling with a new problem. He is trying to develop another fast charging and pile driving guard to replace the departed leader and also to secure a punter the equal of the likeable Michael.

DeCarbo Was Good
The "Red Hurricane" is going to miss DeCarbo, whose presence on that big, powerful, swift, charging line made those runs of Johnny Uram's possible. DeCarbo was what one might call a perfect lineman, quick, strong and brainy. He often pulled out of the line to lead the way when Uram and Nickum started sweeping end runs.

It is not known exactly who will replace DeCarbo on the line, but Nickum will likely get the call at the punting job. Either Palkovitch or Humphrey will likely be in the right guard post.

New Castle has a lot of preparing to do to get ready for this invasion next Thursday of the Foxy Miller crew. Turtle Creek has been beaten this year, but they have always put up a battle and they expect to show the "Red Hurricane" something about the game.

Need Victory
Coach Bridenbaugh is very ambitious to have the Turtle Creek game on the right side of the ledger. It will mean 10 straight games won this year should "Lady Luck" be with New Castle next week. It will also mean the leadership of the Class AA division along with Jeannette, providing Jeannette tops Greensburg and New Castle takes Turtle Creek.

New Castle will be better perfect for the Turtle Creek game. Coach Bridenbaugh the old master will see to that. When New Castle trots out on the field to oppose Turtle Creek every man on that red and black squad will be saying to himself, "We must win this game."

Ron Thomas May Play At Guard

Coach Phil Bridenbaugh is a worried man this week. He has a big job ahead of him to get ready for that Thanksgiving Day battle with Turtle Creek next Thursday. His task has been doubly hard by the fact that Captain Mike DeCarbo becomes 20 years old this week, and is thereby lost to the team for the final game.

It is indicated that Ronald Thomas, the stellar end will be shifted to the right guard post held down by the departed DeCarbo and Thomas will not be a stranger to this department, having been used at a guard job last year part-time. Patsy James will get the left-end berth if Thomas moves over to guard, thus giving New Castle a team of regulars to face the Turtle Creek eleven.

Appreciation For Altoona Folks

Old Grads Will Attend Game On "Turkey Day"

When New Castle High School football team rings down the curtain next Thursday afternoon at "Taggart Field" against Turtle Creek High there will be many former New Castle High football stars in the stands watching them. The game has been designated as "Home-Coming Day."

The holiday will bring many of the former New Castle High stars to this city from schools and business vocations. It is planned to have a gala celebration in honor of the old timers. Among the local ex-High star boosters are Mayor Charles Mayne, Sheriff Frank Johnston, William G. Andrews, Dr. William Horner, Dr. Earl Eakin, Ed Logan, E. F. G. Harper, Cy Ingram, Ed Raney, Bill Howe, George Muse, Ed Conner, Bill Conner, Dr. Phil Sargent, and others. Dr. H. E. Zerner, team physician is confined in the Jameson hospital and will not be able to attend the game.

Letter Men On Football Team To Get Sweaters

Letter men of the New Castle High School football team will be given sweaters this season by the Athletic Council. The authorization for such action was passed by the New Castle School Board Wednesday night, upon the motion of Director Albert Bauman.

"This year's team is a credit to the city and the school," said Mr. Bauman. "It has conducted itself in a sportsmanlike manner, has won all its games thus far, and it seems to me that sweaters would be properly in order to show the boys that their work is appreciated." The list of men eligible for sweaters will be furnished the Athletic Council by Coach P. H. Bridenbaugh.

Polish Girls Are Playing Basketball

The manager of the team is Miss Stella Kawa, 1507 Poplar street, and she can be reached for games by calling 4297-R. The following girls comprise the squad trying for positions on the team: J. Kylenka, C. Potoczna, B. Wenda, L. Wenda, S. Kozela, K. Kellar, S. Kawa, G. Boron, B. Potoczna, G. Owoc, H. Noga, M. Masurkiewicz, W. Dudek, A. Panfil, A. Paroda, M. Boron, J. Biedka, Z. Kozela and H. Kozela. Jennie Ostrosky is coach of the girls' team.

Bessemer Hi' Wins Four, Drops Three

Defeat Lowellville, Clintonville, Slippery Rock, Union

TIES ZELIENOPLE; BANQUET NEXT WEEK

(Special To The News)
BESSEMER, Nov. 17.—Football season came to an end for the Bessemer high school varsity Saturday when Bessemer won from Union 2 to 0, and a recapitulation shows four victories, three defeats and one deadlock.

A summary of the season: Bessemer 7; Lowellville 0. Bessemer 0; Sharpsville 27. Bessemer 7; Sciencetown 14. Bessemer 12; Zelenople 12. Bessemer 19; Clintonville 6. Bessemer 14; Slippery Rock 0. Bessemer 0; Shenango 19. Bessemer 2; Union 0.

The gridgers, coached by J. H. Fredericks, Jr., started out by losing the first three games but in the succeeding five contests had only one defeat registered against them, and the season will be climaxed November 23 by the annual football banquet.

The Bessemer varsity was practically green. Only five lettermen remained from 1931 and only one of the five played regularly throughout the season. DeArment, Plevnic, J. Percic and Slavish were the nucleus around which the eleven had to be moulded. Frank Sankovich, one of the other lettermen carried a shoulder injury from 1931 and he participated in only three games.

Wage Sift Battle
The team's playing could be characterized as listless during the first half but of a determined standard during the second half, with one exception, that being the Union game in which Bessemer battled from opening until the final whistle.

The first game with Lowellville was lost to perhaps the best team in the league. The score was 19 to 0. About a month later word was received from the principal of the school that two ineligible men had played on the Lowellville team and the game was forfeited to Bessemer.

The second game found a bigger and faster Sharpsville eleven on the long end of a 27 to 0 score, and Sciencetown came along and won 14 to 7. The following week Clintonville lost to Bessemer 19 to 6. At the half Clintonville was ahead 6 to 0 but Bessemer waged a strong offensive battle in the second half and piled up their 19 points.

Zelenople furnished the next opposition. Zelenople led during the first half and the score was 6 to 0 at the half time siren. Bessemer tore into Zelenople's defense for two touchdowns in the third quarter and held a 12 to 6 lead two minutes before the end of the game. A Zelenople safety man seized a punt on his five yard line and raced 95 yards to tie the score 12 to 12 and the game ended in a deadlock.

Bessemer met Shenango and the first half ended with Shenango having 19 points and Bessemer none. Bessemer braced in the second half and prevented Shenango from amassing additional points. One week later Slippery Rock was beaten 14 to 0 and the Union-Bessemer came next and Bessemer won from its chief rivals 2 to 0.

Only two seniors were on the entire squad this season and of these only Joe Percic played regularly. Should the squad maintain the spirit that was evident in the clash with Union and no doubt it will teams which face Bessemer in 1933 can expect an afternoon of football every minute the game is on.

Thirty six comprised the squad. Mr. Thomas gave his time drilling the second squad and Coach Fredericks had charge of the varsity and now that the pigskin has been placed away until early training next fall the gridgers will look forward to the annual grid banquet November 23.

Following were the gridgers most consistently in the lineup: J. Percic, F. Sankovich, Captain Plevnic, Watson, Benson, Marshall, Hulema, Pezzula, Capezzuto, DeArment, Seltzer, Hostnik, M. Sankovich, Slavish, Clark, Rubia, Donofrio. Others who played with the varsity were Shoup, Wolfe, Panella, Di Lullo and F. Percic.

Vanderbilt And Columbia Picked For Relief Game

Southern School May Meet Columbia In New York City On December 3

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Vanderbilt University, unbeaten in the Southern Conference or elsewhere, though tied by Tulane and Tennessee, probably will carry the banner of Southern football into a post-season game here for charity against an Eastern team, identity, for very good reasons, not yet known. The tentative date is December 3. The place, the Yankee stadium. The beneficiary, the destitute and unemployed.

That much was determined in a brief conference here last night between Dr. J. H. Kirkland, president of the university, and Daniel M. Daniel, chairman of the Mayor's Sports committee on unemployment relief. While awaiting the official approval of the university, which is yet to come, they agreed on everything about the football game, except who's going to play it. With the average Eastern college, charity not only seems to begin at home, but stays there, peering furtively out upon one and all from behind the blinds and sending the help down to say that the family moved away last Tuesday a week and left no forwarding address.

Anyhow, I heard something said yesterday about "smoking" Columbia out of this game. Columbia was smoked out last year in connection with a preposterous program, whereby it played a half-game with somebody and somebody played a half-game with somebody else, with the result that it required four football teams to play no football game at all. I trust they don't smoke Columbia out the same way this time.

Dr. Kirkland is on his way back to Nashville today to place the matter before his faculty for a vote on Saturday, with every hope of success. He's for the football game. So is Lou Little, of Columbia. But he's only the coach. So are his football men. But they only play the game. It seems necessary, in fact, to disguise the true nature of the situation, as though it was something not quite praiseworthy, like fallen arches or goiter; so the idea now is to ask those at the university if it's all right with them if it's football players offer to perform a fine public service, not in any way implicating the college, of course, but as precocious and irresponsible individuals who somehow seem to have gotten a little out of hand.

Stock Market Reflects Apathy

Dull Session Is Recorded In Trading In New York

STEADIER TONE DEVELOPS TODAY

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The stock market today lapsed into apathy, paralleling the dull sessions of the pre-election rally.

Price changes were narrow as Wall Street waited for some clue to the outcome of the war debts situation. A steadier tone of the last few days. Surprise payment of the Electric Bond & Share dividend late yesterday helped sentiment.

The professional element continued to dominate the trading and the market was extremely thin, buying or selling orders of a few hundred shares bringing rapid fluctuations even in leading stocks.

Companies affiliated with Bond & Share were stronger, led by National Power & Light. Utilities generally, however, did little and were more influenced by the course of the general market.

Chrysler was strengthened by announcement the new Plymouth was on display. Motor stocks did little as a group.

Even the pool stocks were dominated by the lethargy in speculative circles and did little.

American Telephone was fractionally better after falling yesterday to respond to payment of the regular dividend. U. S. Steel and other issues held around the previous close.

Commodities and bonds showed few changes of importance.

Crippled Recluse Dwells In Stack On Limb Of Tree

(International News Service)
HANFORD, Cal., Nov. 17.—The tree sitting mania which swept the country like a plague three years ago has never so much as reached the ears of Sherman Hutchinson, Hanford's veteran tree-dweller.

Crippled from a recent paralytic stroke, Hutchinson has been, so to speak, up a tree for seven years.

He built a shack on the limbs of a willow tree, and there he lives.

Hutchinson has been a recluse for a long time. He turned to tree dwelling when he was attacked in a tent and severely slashed by a tramp who attempted to rob him about seven years ago.

His cooking and washing are done on the ground.

Aged and bent, Hutchinson earns his living by picking fruit and berries.

Another volume has just been added to the collection lining the walls of the Prince's library, and there are now more than forty volumes, bound in half morocco, each containing 7,000 cuttings.

popular vote in 1876, but lost the presidency to Rutherford B. Hayes as a result of an adverse decision of the electoral commission. Democrats still assert Tilden was deprived of his victory.

Three Hundred Fifty Hear New Basketball Regulations For Year

Anxious to learn the complicated and important shift in basketball rules laid down for the 1932-33 season, an audience of almost 350 players and fans sat through a two-hour lecture-demonstration clinic conducted for the first time in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium last night.

Physical Director Henry T. MacNichols, sponsor of the enlightening playing exhibition, was satisfied this morning that at least that many persons in New Castle would understand the significant alterations of the rules when teams go to battle in different Y leagues later on.

Conducted primarily for members of the Y league teams, the demonstration, announced in advance as open to the public, drew a throng of outsiders who wish to become better versed with the changes.

From 9 o'clock until 11 the Y playing floor was packed with spectators, while MacNichols, aided by leading basketball officials of the city, explained the new amendments in detail.

Two volunteer teams, the Wesley M. E. "A" squad and the Sacred Heart "B" five, played two eight-minute quarters to give practical application to the new rules.

Volunteering their time and knowledge last night were "Horse" Gillum, "Fritz" Prazier, Ray Nolte, Francis Uhl and Bob Jones. They contributed special demonstrations of the changes.

The new rule in the basketball code which requires a line across the center of the floor past which an offensive team must advance within ten seconds has been amended somewhat due to a new bulletin from the rules committee.

The approved ruling states that where agreeable to leagues, associations or groups of teams, the line may be fixed at varying, mutually acceptable distances on any floors which are 60 feet or less in length.

For instance, on a 60-foot floor two lines might be used, each 20 feet from the lines. Each team must advance beyond the 20-foot line on its defensive and when in possession rather than past mid-floor.

This new ruling was made in order to prevent teams with small floors from being handicapped and bunching up of players in one limited section of the court.

Director MacNichols, commenting on the new changes last night, said the small floors will likely find it hard to adopt the new rules while larger floors will readily accept the changes.

Cross Eyes Cause Inferiority Complex

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 17.—Straightening the eyes of cross-eyed children, besides increasing vision, is likely to save the child a well-developed inferiority complex in later years, according to the official journal of the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

Dr. Luther C. Peter, professor of ophthalmology of the graduate school of the University of Pennsylvania, points out that cross-eyed children, continually taunted by playmates, become so conscious of their handicap that they gradually shun contacts with other children, prefer to play alone and toward adolescence develop a serious inferiority complex as the defect grows in the youth's consciousness.

ROAMING

With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Interesting Observations Around New Castle.

The school board set an all time all-something-or-other record Wednesday night. It adjourned by 9:30. And that, ladies and gentlemen, is a trifle more than something. Not to you perhaps, but to one who has lost many a bundle of hay (sleep to you) through sitting up with the educational solons in the past ten years, the occasion calls for something more than three rousing cheers.

Ordinarily the party isn't properly under way at 9:30. There are communications to read, reports to hear, and usually some of the Vox Populi are present to present some cause. By 9:30 the board has hardly got its second wind but last night's session was a sprint from whistle to whistle.

The fact that there was little business of importance to transact, no coal to buy, no buildings to build and no controversies to settle, had something to do with it, but there's a suspicion that Secretary Hugh Marquis had a date and wanted to get through early.

What motivated the speed really doesn't matter, the answer is that we were all out on the bricks shortly after 9:30, and none of the directors had any alibi last night for staying out late.

County Treasurer William O. Pitts, the pride of Mt. Jackson, has a complaint to make about the game laws or something. He feels that there ought to be a law passed or a letter written to the paper, or perhaps a resolution passed by the board condemning in no uncertain terms the hunters who bumped off three pheasants he had.

They weren't just ordinary pheasants. Pitt had raised them from the egg, three of them, not from one egg of course, but one egg for each pheasant. You'll understand, I know. After they were hatched he started them in an especially prepared diet, watched over them like no mamma pheasant would, and had them named. Their names were Winken, Blinken and Nod.

A week before hunting season they were in fine fettle. They were well fed, well groomed and perfect in table manners. They were, in short, the ideal pets for the country home.

Comes the hunting season and with it a group of numruds who are out for rabbits, squirrels, birds or mushrooms. And right on the very first day, the house broken, hand trained, perfectly mannered pheasants owned by the county treasurer got in the way of some sharpshooter and the three of them went blotto.

Like the Three Musketeers they fought together, but what chance, I ask you, has a trio of ring neck pheasants against both barrels of a shot gun. The answer is none at all. Somebody won themselves a meal of roast pheasant and the county treasurer is figuring on hanging the court house flag at half mast.

City May Start Curb Work Monday

Olsen Will Commence Widening And Repaving Probably Wednesday

Providing plans do not miscarry employees of the city will commence the relocation of curb in East Washington street between County Line and Ray street Monday morning.

It is reported Victor Olson, head of the Victor Olsen Contracting company will sign a contract some time today or Friday with the city. This contract will provide that the city is to pay the company for paving in connection with the rounding of corners as the radius is to be increased.

According to Frank Miller, city engineer, it is believed that the Olson company will start work by Wednesday, at least. Yesterday Olsen said he is ready to start as soon as the contract is signed.

TRADE ACCEPTANCES INVOLVED IN SUIT

In the case of the Traders Security Corporation of St. Louis against Mrs. L. V. Crooks of New Wilmington, which was tried at court before Judge James A. Chambers, the jury this morning brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $377.54. The suit was based on five trade acceptances given by Mrs. Crooks to the Arch Manufacturing Company and ended over to the Traders Security Company. When they were not paid suit was brought against the maker. The original amount of the acceptances was $298, the verdict including interest.

So at least labor-saving machines will do all the work, and then they'll be taxed to provide a dole for the jobless.

Scheduled air transport services operating in the United States flew 22,201,395 miles during the first six months of 1932.
